

CONSERVATION WALKS

This route provides access for walkers and horse riders to follow a field edge path round land being managed under the Countryside Stewardship Scheme. The thin chalky soils on the field make it ideal for recolonisation of chalk downland flowers and grasses such as Birdsfoot Trefoil, Marjoram and Cowslip. Grazing is managed carefully to encourage flowers and insect life to thrive and the field is kept free of fertiliser and pesticides. The path offers wide ranging views over the Elham Valley, an area designated within the Kent Downs Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty.
